Severn Trent Services Appoints New General Manager for its European Water Purification Business

Enric Cardoner will be responsible for driving the company's business throughout Europe.

BIRMINGHAM, U.K. – 21 October 2011

Severn Trent Services has announced the appointment of Enric Cardoner as the new general manager for its Water Purification group in Europe. In this position, Cardoner will manage the company's European business, which is serviced from offices in the United Kingdom, Italy and Spain.

During his career, Cardoner has held senior positions with major companies in both water and technological fields. Previously, Cardoner held positions at EMTE Sistemas and at ADASA Sistemas, where he was general manager for the past seven years.

Born in Girona, Spain, Cardoner is a qualified engineer from the Universitat Politècnica of Catalonia and earned an MBA from the ESADE Business School.

According to Cardoner, "My primary goal as general manager is to maintain Severn Trent Services' leadership in Spain as a key provider of water and wastewater treatment technologies, as well as strengthening our market position across the rest of Europe".
