Severn Trent – North America’s Strong Safety Culture Means Zero Lost Time Incidents

Horsham, Pa. – 8 May 2017 Severn Trent – North America, a leading operator of water and wastewater assets, announced that it completed 365 days with zero workplace lost time incidents as of April 2017. This significant milestone shows how important health and safety are to Severn Trent and its employees.

“We are 100% committed to a safety culture focused on the health of our people and our environment,” said President & CEO Stephane Bouvier. “We are also very pleased that our employees have embraced our safety philosophy and that they have fostered a sense of ownership for managing their own environment. This enables us to continuously work toward an injury-free workplace each and every day.”
